

Sinclair Broadcasting's attempt to pass off partisan propaganda as a documentary follows the group's preemption of Nightline's "Roll Call of the Fallen in Iraq." Use of public's airwaves for partisan purposes is self serving.

Sinclair has free use of the public's airwaves. I believe that the company's violation of the public trust by trying to influence the November 2nd presidential election constitutes a cause for denial of the group's license to broadcast.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
